W: Hey, Paul. How have you been?

M: Hi, Rebecca. I'm getting ready to move.

W: Really? I thought you liked this neighborhood. It's even near your kids' school.

M: Yes, that's one reason why I liked living here.

W: Then, why do you want to move?

M: I'd like to do some gardening. So I found a house with a big backyard.

W: That sounds nice. But I'm sure you'll miss this place.

M: I know. Another thing I'll miss is that I can walk to work.

W: Right, you don't have to deal with traffic jams.

M: Yeah, but I think I'll be able to manage.

W: I see. When are you moving?

M: Hopefully, early next month.

W: Okay. I hope you like your new place.
