M: Kevin and his friend Deborah are high school students, and they're preparing for the Inter school Debate Contest. The debate topic is "Youth Culture." To make their debate more effective, they've decided to conduct a survey on the topic and use the data they gather while debating. So they've made a list of survey questions. Now, they're planning how they will hand out the survey sheets, collect them, and analyze the survey data. While planning, Kevin realizes that it'll be faster and easier if people do the survey online, rather than on paper. So he wants to suggest his idea to Deborah. In this situation, what would Kevin most likely say to Deborah?

- ① Okay. I'll pay in cash for these shoes.
- ② Excuse me, could you help me find my shoes?
- ③ Wait a minute. I think I got the wrong change.
- ④ Sorry, but I need your help to make a reservation.
- ⑤ These are too big. Would you give me smaller ones?
