W: Mr. Bresnan, how's the preparation for this month's Career Day going?

M: Pretty well, Ms. Potter. This time, a local baker is visiting our school to speak with our students.

W: It'll be good for our students to learn about what bakers do. The event will be held in the seminar room tomorrow, right?

M: Well, I think I have to change the place of the event.

W: Why? Is there another event scheduled in that room?

M: No, I already checked.

W: Then is it because of the repair work going on next door?

M: That's not an issue. It starts after school.

W: So, why do you want to change the place?

M: Actually, more students signed up than I expected.

W: Oh, I see. How about using the conference room, then? It has more space.

M: Great idea. I'll go check if it's available and let the students know.
